Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Summary

On October 26, 2006, an Office Action was sent to the Applicant rejecting claims 3-11, 13-21, and 23. On November 15, 2006, the Applicant responded with arguments.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 3-11, 13-21, and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Kiel (2003/0027549), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed November 15, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argues that Kiel does not disclose bandwidth limitations based on multiple thresholds per client. In response, the limitation "bandwidth limitations based on multiple thresholds per client" is not found in the claims. Kiel discloses imposing limitations based on the amount of data that can be consumed, including utilized bandwidth (p.2, 21 and p.3, 26). Bandwidth used for specific communication is monitored, and if the user's account balance falls below the limit, then the limitation is imposed (i.e.—activity may be terminated).

The Applicant argues that Kiel does not provide multiple bandwidth limitations/penalties per subscriber; automatically restoring user's bandwidth based on time; or the option to carry forward previous balances into the next interval. In response, the limitations "multiple bandwidth limitations/penalties per subscriber; "automatically restoring user's bandwidth based on time"; "the option to carry forward previous balances into the next interval" are not present in the claims. Kiel discloses various client billing rules for different communication activities. The rules may include different charges depending on the time of day, number called, etc. (p.3, 35). The user's bandwidth is restored based on the user's account balance and time being utilized for various activities.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
